

The Ludlow Link 4

Hello Ludlow,

We hope you have managed to get out for your daily exercise and enjoy the sunshine this week. It has been another fun week in school with the teachers continuing to come in to teach the children who are still attending. It was lovely to see so many people on Friday celebrating VE day. We would love to see photos of your celebrations. We are so proud of everyone who is continuing to follow the social distancing guidance and is staying home. Keep smiling.

The Ludlow Team 😊

Whole School Project

Are you bored of being stuck inside? Well there is a whole world out there that you can explore from the comfort of your own home! Use the whole school project under the home learning tab of the website to explore another country and build your very own passport!

Blindfold Drawing Challenge

On Monday Miss Hartnell-Parker led the teachers through a blindfold drawing competition - a combination of challenges sent in by Alex, Eden, Niamh and Nancy. Miss H-P unveiled that the teachers would have to draw the school bell tower and gave them 2 minutes to draw. During the challenge, Miss Dipietro was clearly struggling as she sat head in hands! The video was uploaded to the school Facebook page for the pupils to decide the winner. Mr Coker was the clear favourite and has taken to calling himself the 'people's champion' as this is now his second win! He competed in another challenge on Friday. Find out below if he made it a hat trick!

NHS Banner

To show our appreciation for the NHS and key workers during Lockdown, we asked children to design a banner that will be hung on the school fence. The children in school created the central rainbow with the help of Miss Crook and 8 designs sent in from pupils at home were chosen to feature on the banner too. Well done to: Evie, Elliot, Endeavour, Imogen, Ciara, Angel, Loki, Ozzie, Milo and Tyler-Dane.

Mrs Street's Brain Busters

Divide 30 by  $\frac{1}{2}$  and add 10.

Email your answer to:

Maria.street@ludlowjunior.org.uk

Hamish

Hello friends!

How are you all? Have you been celebrating VE Day? I've seen lots of flags out on my walks. I also had lots of fun at the front garden tea party!

This week's teacher challenge was blindfold drawing! They are so competitive! Well done Mr Coker for drawing the best picture! If you can think of a good challenge for the teachers, send it in!

Have you been enjoying my daily updates? Don't forget to look on the school website to find out what I have been up to. Take care of yourselves friends and I will see you soon! I'm proud of you all!

Love Hamish

Ps. Don't forget to send your crazy hairstyles to Miss Lovland at Jade.Lovland@ludlowjunior.org.uk

T-Shirt Challenge

On Friday 4 teachers competed in school in Felix and Jasper's T-shirt challenge. The pupils who were attending school that day were lucky enough to watch. It was a nail-biting finish with only 1 second between Mr Cassim and Mr Wright; Mr Cassim scooped the victory putting on his t-shirt in an impressive 14 seconds. Well done Mr Cassim! Mr Rogers finished in 3rd place with Mr Coker coming in last, visibly disappointed not to maintain his winning streak! Do you have a challenge you would like the teachers to try? Send it in to: challenge@ludlowjunior.org.uk

Pupil Achievements

Elliot recently won a framed Saints shirt for a colouring competition he entered for a local artist. What a fantastic achievement!

Imogen wrote a superb newspaper report to celebrate VE day after interviewing her 3 great nans about their experience during WW2. Well done Imogen!

What have the teachers been up to?

Mr Poucher

Hi everyone, I hope you are all safe, well and busy!

It has been lovely to receive fantastic independent work in my e-mail inbox and I have been hugely impressed with the curiosity, interest and determination to create and complete projects at home in these challenging times.

As for me, I have been in school for a day (most weeks). When not creating challenges and looking at planning (hopefully) for after half-term, I have been busy gardening and decorating and most of all READING which is not something I usually get much time to do. I have read a book about Henry VIII which has over 800 pages! I am currently reading 'Emma' by Jane Austen, a famous author who lived in the old town in Southampton for a time. Mr Poucher

Mrs Vokes

Hi everyone,

Wow, what crazy times we are all having at the moment - I miss Ludlow! As well as teaching in school and planning lessons at home, I am being kept busy by my two daughters. I'm home schooling both of them as well as taking my youngest daughter's gymnastic sessions via zoom three times a week. I have also been running loads and have decorated two rooms in my house. I am enjoying keeping in contact with all your teachers through zoom and I love taking part in our staff weekly quiz. I hope you are all staying home and keeping safe - I can't wait to see you all!

Keep smiling, Mrs Vokes

Challenge a Teacher

This week there will be 2 more Challenge a Teacher competitions. On Monday, Teachers will see who can put the most clothes on in 1 minute - a challenge sent in by Shannon and Kimberly.

In school on Thursday, the teachers will be competing in a very funny challenge. Spinning around for 30 seconds and then throwing a toilet roll in a bucket, sent in by Alex and Eden. I wonder if any teachers will fall over?

Ludlow Lockdown Book

There is still time to send in your entry for the Ludlow Lockdown book - a book of accounts of what it has been like to live through Lockdown. If you would like to be included in this incredible memento, please write a paragraph explaining what Lockdown has been like for you: what you have been up to and how life is different. Along with this, please send in one photo that sums up your experience to:

Maria.Street@ludlowjunior.org.uk