

Miss Crook's #shelfie

A circular photograph of Miss Crook, a woman with long blonde hair, smiling and holding a book in front of a bookshelf. The text 'Miss Crook's #shelfie' is written in a decorative font above the photo.

★ Favourite Books ★

Hello remarkable readers!

I hope you are still smiling even though it has been 8 weeks since we have seen each other properly.

Because we are not able to visit lots of our favourite places at the moment, I have chosen to tell you about two spectacular books with characters who have not yet ventured beyond their own homes and the challenges they face when trying to reach new, special places...Enjoy! ☺

You could look for Miss Crook's recommendations in a library (the one in school or near your home), a book shop or online. If you still can't find what you're looking for, speak to Miss Crook in school and she will do her very best to help you. ☺

Lower School Recommendation:

The Magic Place – Chris Wormell ages 7 - 11 years ★★★★★

Chris Wormell has illustrated lots of books for famous authors such as Phillip Pullman (Northern Lights) but this is his fantastic debut novel. 'The Magic Place' tells the story of Clementine, a lonely girl trapped in a house with her wicked aunt and uncle. With the help of her very clever cat Gilbert, she sets off on an epic journey to the magical place she has seen in her dreams. A thrilling and moving tale about looking for the most magical place of all - home ☺

Upper School Recommendation:

Varjak Paw – S.F. Said - ages 8 - 12 years ★★★★★★

Although S.F. Said has only published three books so far, he's one of my favourite authors! He writes stories about characters developing special powers and abilities and Varjak Paw is no exception. Follow Varjak the kitten in his dreams and reality as he learns 'The Way' to survive a city full of dangerous dogs, cat gangs and strangest of all...The mysterious 'Vanishings'!

Ludlow Loves Reading Shout outs:

A huge thank you to Gracie for sending me a picture of her reading Flotsam by David Wiesner! Let me know which books you're getting stuck into so I can give you a shout out too!
