

Hello Ludlow readers!

More children are back at school this week and some of you are at home, wherever you are I hope you are happy and enjoying your learning! In this post, I'd like to share with you my love of funny stories with eccentric characters. Lots of you may have read books by Roald Dahl and David Walliams, if you enjoy humorous stories like theirs, check out this week's recommendations for plenty more chuckles! 😊

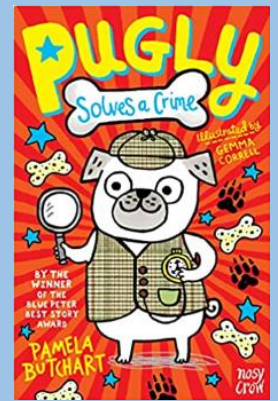

You could look for Miss Crook's recommendations in a library (the one in school or near your home), a book shop or online. If you still can't find what you're looking for, speak to Miss Crook in school and she will do her very best to help you. 😊

Lower School Recommendation:

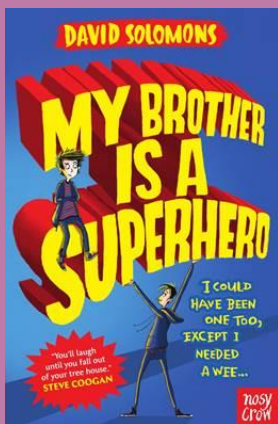

Pugly Solves a Crime – Pamela Butchart ★★★★★ age 7 - 9 years

If you're looking for a side-splitting detective story with loveable animal characters, 'Pugly Solves a Crime' is the book for you! When Pugly hears that Big Sal the guinea pig has been GUINEA PIG-NAPPED he knows it's time to become the ultimate PUG-TECTIVE! Was it Glitterpuff the fancy poodle? Or maybe Tiny the dramatic chihuahua was behind the crime? I recommend you read this aloud with a friend or family member (maybe even a pet!) so you can create lots of funny voices for the equally hilarious characters! 😊

Upper School Recommendation: ★★★★★

My Brother is a Superhero – David Solomons age 9+

David Solomons is no stranger to humour - he's won the 2018 Laugh out Loud (Lollies) award amongst other prestigious accolades. 'My Brother is a Superhero' follows Luke - superhero expert and comic lover - as he's given his own superpowers and instructed to save two universes! However, Luke nips away to go for a wee and comes back to find his nerdy homework-loving brother Zack bestowed with the powers of 'Star Lad' (despite refusing to wear a cape!) Star Lad goes viral, an asteroid threatens the world and the person with all of the super-hero powers goes missing! Fast moving and very funny with lots of references to superheroes you might already know, this inventive story will have you laughing out loud and weighing up the pros and cons of having a sibling!

Ludlow Loves Reading Shout outs: Miss Luxton has been enjoying the Percy Jackson book series (Rick Riordan) and Mrs Lucas and Alice have been reading The Naughtiest Girl in School (Enid Blyton)!
