

If you know me, then you know I love acting- I love dramatising stories in class and just having fun with characters. So, why not try my drama challenges!

Drama challenge 1: play sculpture and statue (pair game) - 1 person is the sculpture and 'moulds' the other person into a living statue!

Drama challenge 2: Why not try acting out a scene in mime (not using your voice) and see if someone can guess what the scene is about!

Drama challenge 3: Create a commercial! Draw an invention- think Wallace and Grommit- and then write and perform an advert which makes your audience desperate to buy it!

Drama challenge 4: Practise improvising by choosing 4 everyday items from your home e.g. book, remote, cuddly toy and cushion and then improvise a scene using all the objects.

Drama challenge 5: Create a puppet theatre using a cereal box (cut the front out) and make your own puppet show:
