

Rainbows of Hope

Across the country people are making rainbows and displaying them in their windows for others to see. This is to share a bit of hope and happiness and show how grateful we are to the NHS who are helping people to feel better.

You could draw, paint or collage your rainbow. See how many rainbows you can spot when you go for a walk for your daily exercise.

