

Hamish's Blog

Hi Everybody!

I've been incredibly busy so far this half term! I'm really looking forward to my birthday this year! I made a video with my Newshounds about the plans for Tuesday 30th November when I will be 7! This year we are working with street vet! Street Vet are a charity to help homeless people care for their dogs! Don't forget to dress down or dress as a dog and bring in £1 as a donation!

I can't wait to see you all on the day!

We have spent some time showing respect for our fallen heroes during the time of remembrance. I was really proud of all my friends at school for being so sensible during their special assemblies. Here I am on my outing to West End Cemetery where I paid my own respects.

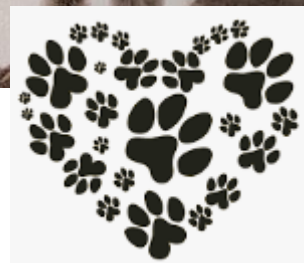

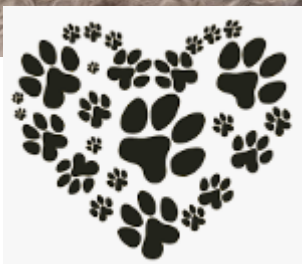

Congratulations to the Playground Pals who have been doing a fantastic job on the playground. It's so lovely to see them coming to RAMP signing their names in and putting their fleeces on! They are outside to help others and be kind and I am so proud of them!

I have to say I am even more impressed with this year's professional school photo! On the left is my 2020 school photo and on the right my 2021 school photo! I definitely think I look better with the haircut!

I know your school photo is as beautiful as mine!

This year for Children in Need, Ludlow is going dotty! I'm really looking forward to seeing you all in your spots next Friday 19th November! Look out for me in my dotty bandana!

Have a great weekend friends!

