

Social, Emotional and Health needs

Area of specialist need	Relating difficulties with:	Classroom provision	Possible interventions
Social, Emotional and Mental Health	Children may have difficulties with social and emotional development which cause or be developed from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Social isolation, - Behaviour difficulties, - Attention difficulties (ADHD), - Anxiety and depression, - Attachment difficulties, - Low self-esteem, - Issues with self-image 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Consistent application of school rules. -Pairing up with positive role model. -Breaking down instructions. -Use of positive praise. -Time- out areas - use of movement breaks/fiddle toys 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Individual behaviour approaches - Behaviour skills learning intervention - Wellbeing groups - Social and communication skills group intervention - Sensory circuits/gross motor intervention