

★ Spellings ★

When we teach you how to spell, we want you to be able to:

- read the word
- know the meaning of the word
- understand the patterns of the letters
- put the word into a sentence

Here are some fun ways to practise spellings with your family. Try different ways to help them stick in your brain!

Spelling paintings

With a paintbrush and a pot of water, go and write your spellings on the pavement, garden fence or patio!

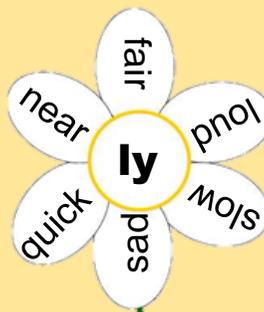

Spelling tennis

Can you throw a ball to a partner and spell a word together saying a letter each time?

Spelling pattern art

Can you create a picture to show the spelling pattern you are learning? E.g.

Creative letters

Use letters around your home to show spelling words. Do you have a scrabble board game? You could cut letters out of magazines or newspapers to stick together!

Make word puzzles

Use your spelling words to make a crossword or word search. Can a family member complete it for you to mark?

I bet you're wondering why I'm here? Spelling is important in ALL subjects, but learning about new spelling words is a great way to boost your vocabulary and help with your reading!

Silly Stories

Can you use all of your spelling words to make a story? The sillier the better!

Agatha was a girl in the modern times who had black hair, jet black eyes, trousers with a short-sleeved shirt was trading in the woods one day. She found

Mnemonics

Some spellings are just too tricky to remember. Can you come up with a mnemonic? e.g.

N ever
E at
Cakes
E at
Sausage
Sandwiches
And Remain
Young

Synonym Superstar

Can you write as many synonyms as you can for each spelling word? Use a thesaurus to help!
